Marine Chemistry, Vol. 37 (1992)

Obituary	1
Research Papers
Fuel cell hydrogen sensor for marine applications F.J. Sansone (Honolulu, HI, USA)	3
Photo-reduction of Fe(III) by dissolved organic substances and existence of Fe(II) in seawater during spring blooms K. Kuma, S. Nakabayashi, Y. Susuki, I. Kudo and K. Matsunaga (Hakodate, Japan)	15
Dynamics of dimethyl sulfide and dimethylsulfoniopropionate oceanic water samples R.P. Kiene (Sapelo Island, GA, USA)	29
Sunlight-induced compositional alterations in the seawater-soluble fraction of crude oil M.G. Ehrhardt (Kiel, Germany), K.A. Burns (Ferry Reach, Bermuda) and M.C. Bicego (São Paulo, Brazil)	53
Spectrophotometric determination of dissolved manganese in natural waters with 1-(2-pyridylazo)-2-naphthol: application to analysis in situ in hydrothermal plumes C.S. Chin, K.S. Johnson and K.H. Coale (Moss Landing, CA, USA)	65
Estuarine distributions of dissolved titanium S.A. Skrabal, W.J. Ullman and G.W. Luther, III (Lewes, DE, USA)	83
Directly observed particulate fluxes of Cd, Ni, and Cu in pelagic oceans: implication of two different settling particles S. Noriki and S. Tsunogai (Hakodate, Japan)	105
Isolation and characterization of sedimentary and synthetic highly branched C ₂₀ and C ₂₅ monoenes S.J. Hird, R. Evans and S.J. Rowland (Plymouth, UK)	117
Polypeptide models of the arthropodin protein of the barnacle Balanus balanoides H. Yamamoto and A. Nagai (Ueda, Japan)	131
Guide for Authors	145
Electron spin resonance investigations of Mn compounds and free radicals in particles from the Seine river and its estuary
A. Boughriet, B. Ouddane and M. Wartel (Villeneuve d'Ascq, France)	149
Reactive mercury on the Scotian Shelf and in the adjacent northwest Atlantic Ocean
J.A. Dalziel (Dartmouth, N.S., Canada)	171
Gran linearization of potentiometric Winkler titration
L.G. Anderson, C. Haraldsson and R. Lindegren (Göteborg, Sweden)	179
The fluorescence of dissolved organic matter in seawater
R.F. Chen and J.L. Bada (La Jolla, CA, USA)	191
Improved amino acid quantification in environmental samples: charge-matched recovery standards and reduced analysis time
G.L. Cowie and J.I. Hedges (Seattle, WA, USA)	223
Determination of dissolved nucleic acids in seawater by the fluorescence dye, ethidium bromide
S. Sakano and A. Kamatani (Tokyo, Japan)	239

Removal of linear alkylbenzenesulfonates (LAS) in the Tamagawa Estuary H. Takada and N. Ogura (Tokyo, Japan).....	257
Dissolved organic carbon in waters of the Polar Frontal Zone of the Atlantic Antarctic in the spring-summer season of 1988-1989 E.V. Dafner (Moscow, Russia).....	275
Book Reviews
Productivity of the Ocean.....	285
Biogeochemistry	286
Corrigendum	289
Contents of Volume 37	291
